Kearney to Host 101st Annual American Legion Department Convention

Lincoln (May 15, 2019) – The American Legion will be conducting their 101st Annual Convention with the American Legion Auxiliary, Sons of The American Legion, and American Legion Riders at the Ramada Inn located at 301 2nd Avenue in Kearney.

A joint session will be held on Friday, June 21 with a memorial service. Saturday will have greetings from Nebraska Department of Veterans Affairs Director John Hilgert, presentations of awards, and greetings from the Department's youth champions. The election and installation of officers will be held Sunday morning.

The public is invited to stop by the Convention Center and learn more information about The American Legion and the opportunities that it offers. Booths and displays will be set up in the hall. Sessions will be conducted Friday, June 21 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, Saturday, June 22 from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm and Sunday, June 23 from 8:00 am to 12:00 pm.

Since its inception in 1919, The American Legion has been a key advocate for veterans' benefits, patriotic American values, instilling values in young people through numerous programs, and a strong nation defense with focus on quality-of-life issues for those serving in today's armed forces.
