Nebraska American Legion Family to Attend National Convention

(Lincoln) August 4, 2021 – More than 40 members of the Nebraska American Legion Family will make their way to Phoenix, Arizona for the 102nd Annual American Legion National Convention held August 27- September 2.

National American Legion Commander Bill Oxford, North Carolina, National American Legion Auxiliary President Nicole Clapp, Iowa, and National Sons of The American Legion Commander Clint Bolt, Virginia, will conduct their respective meetings during the Convention. Each group will be discussing the Four Pillars that serve as the bedrock of each organization. Those pillars shape the very fabric of our organizations mission and consist of; Veterans Affairs and Rehabilitation, National Security, Americanism, and Children and Youth.

During the week, members will conduct a patriotic memorial service, listen to keynote speakers, attend banquets, and other various events.

Since its inception in 1919, The American Legion has been a key advocate for veterans' benefits, patriotic American values, instilling values in young people through numerous programs, and a strong nation defense with focus on quality-of-life issues for those serving in today's armed forces.
