American Legion Junior Law Cadet Honorees Chosen

(Lincoln) August 2, 2024 – The Nebraska American Legion’s 55th annual Junior Law Cadet Program was held June 17 – 21, 2024, at the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center in Grand Island.

28 boys and 30 girls who just finished their junior year of high school participated in this program. The students were selected from each of the 14 American Legion districts in Nebraska.

Participants learned about law enforcement responsibilities and had training from representatives of various city, county, state, and federal agencies. They participated in daily calisthenics, classroom sessions, self-defense, firearms, law enforcement driving, internet crime, and radar use. Evening classes were devoted to accident and crime investigation, fingerprinting and polygraph techniques, and other special topics.

Six young men and women were selected from the participants for performing above and beyond during the week. Outstanding Boy Cadet – Wesley Vick of Plattsmouth; Outstanding Girl Cadet – Aubrie Seybold of McCook; Outstanding Boys Driving Ability – Thomas Walker of Winnebago; Outstanding Girls Driving Ability – Kesli Cox of Hayes Center; Outstanding Boys Marksmanship – Justin Haskins of Lyman; Outstanding Girls Marksmanship – Zylena Ramirez of Lincoln.

The American Legion is dedicated to the motto of “Veterans Strengthening America.” Chartered by Congress in 1919, The American Legion is committed to mentoring youth and sponsoring wholesome community programs, advocating patriotism and honor, promoting a strong national security, and continued devotion to servicemembers and veterans. Legionnaires in more than 12,500 posts across the nation and regions overseas serve their communities with a devotion to mutual helpfulness.
